WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

CALL TO WORSHIP (SAID IN UNISON)

Jesus announced the coming of God's reign
a commonwealth not of domination
but of peace, justice, and reconciliation.

He healed the sick and fed the hungry.

He forgave sins and freed those held captive by all manner of demonic powers.

He crossed barriers of race, class, culture, and gender.

He preached and practised unconditional love

Love of God, love of neighbour

Love of friend, love of enemy

He commanded his followers to love one another as he had loved them.

And so we his followers gather to worship this day.

LIGHTING OF THE CHRIST CANDLE

As we light this Christ candle, may it remind us that Christ is in us and in Our world.

INTROIT: VU # 400

Lord, listen to your children praying,

Lord, send your Spirit in this place;

Lord, listen to your children praying,

send us love, send us power, send us grace!

OPENING PRAYER (SAID IN UNISON)

You have given us a new day, dear God, and we begin today by honouring you and offering our love. We sing our grateful praises to you. We ask that you would be present to us in this place, and fill our hearts with your compassion and grace. May peace and joy fill your house, great God of all. May we embrace the work and ministry of Jesus Christ. Amen

SERVICE OF BAPTISM

Today we are baptizing Emma Grace Nicholson daughter of Tim & Debra Nicholson, sister of Bryn & Avery.

(Please follow along with the baptism insert in the bulletin, also if you could leave the insert in the pew when finished so we can use in the future, that would be appreciated.)

(Children may go up to Sunday school now)

PRAYER OF CONFESSION:

God, sometimes we forget the things that are most important. For many reasons, our time, money, and energy are spent in places and in ways that really don't have the first place in our hearts.

Forgive us, God, and help us to discern what it important. Turn us outward to discern the good in others and ourselves. Turn us outward to see the needs of others. Turn us inward to seek your peace. Help us in all places to feel your presence. Amen

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

WE HEAR THE WISDOM OF THE WORD

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (SAID BY ALL)

May we hear these ancient scriptures with trusting faith and gentle hope, with creative enthusiasm and honest doubt, rooted in the teachings of Jesus and grounded in your love. May we hear your call in scripture today. Amen

We Sing of Jesus
Sunday, February 12, 2012

We find God made known in Jesus of Nazareth, and so we sing of God the Christ, the Holy One embodied.

We sing of Jesus,
a Jew,
born to a woman in poverty
in a time of social upheaval and political oppression.

He knew human joy and sorrow.
So filled with the Holy Spirit was he that in him people experienced the presence of God among them.
We sing praise to God incarnate.

Jesus announced the coming of God's reign—
a commonwealth not of domination
but of peace, justice, and reconciliation.

He healed the sick and fed the hungry.
He forgave sins and freed those held captive
by all manner of demonic powers.
He crossed barriers of race, class, culture, and gender.
He preached and practised unconditional love—
love of God, love of neighbour,
love of friend, love of enemy—
and he commanded his followers to love one another as he had loved them.

Because his witness to love was threatening,
those exercising power sought to silence Jesus.
He suffered abandonment and betrayal,
state-sanctioned torture and execution.
He was crucified.

But death was not the last word.
God raised Jesus from death,

turning sorrow into joy,
despair into hope.
We sing of Jesus raised from the dead.
We sing hallelujah.

By becoming flesh in Jesus,
God makes all things new.
In Jesus' life, teaching, and self-offering,
God empowers us to live in love.
In Jesus' crucifixion,
God bears the sin, grief, and suffering of the world.
In Jesus' resurrection,
God overcomes death.
Nothing separates us from the love of God.

The Risen Christ lives today, present to us and the source of our hope.
In response to who Jesus was
and to all he did and taught,
to his life, death, and resurrection,
and to his continuing presence with us through the Spirit, we celebrate him as the Word made flesh,
the one in whom God and humanity are perfectly joined,
the transformation of our lives,
the Christ.

Jesus teaching about the kingdom.
