

Connecting Together

- Where St. Paul's United Church Atrium 308 King St. Midland (enter off of the walkway between the church and the library)
- When Dec 14, Jan 11, 18 etc. and every Thursday from 2:00-3:30
- Who Anyone in the community who would like to join in fellowship with others. This group could include caregivers and their loved ones, folks with a life limiting or chronic illness and other community members who would like to support each other in a compassionate community environment.
- What Connecting Together is facilitated by Louise who started this group pre-COVID. We connect together with others to share coffee and treats together, stories/storytelling, fun, fellowship and to meet new friends. This program is in response to a community need and may help empower individuals to explore important physical, emotional, social, spiritual and practical support.
- How Pop in on Thursdays or if possible leave a message at the church office (705-526-6077) to pre-register or for more information. We will certainly call you back!
